

200-Hour Teacher Training FAQ

What style of yoga is being taught?

The style of yoga taught is Interdisciplinary Vinyasa. Hatha informed, and Vinyasa approached, this style of yoga is rooted in experiential learning, breath-synchronized movement, conscious rest, and approaches this ancient practice as a journey to the self with care and contemplation. Interdisciplinary Vinyasa emphasizes the balance of motion and stillness, curiosity and creativity, and lays the foundation to teach Vinyasa, Power, Gentle, as well as your own unique style of yoga.

Who is this training for?

This program is for all those seeking to find the most authentic version of themselves, expand their knowledge of yoga, deepen their practice, and/or be equipped with the tools to share this practice; teach! This program encourages self-development and supports experiential learning.

Is this a Yoga Alliance certified school?

Yes. This school is a 200-Hour Yoga Alliance certified institution as well as a Continuing Education Provider (YA-CEP). Upon completion of the program and graduation, you will receive your certification and will be able to register with Yoga Alliance as a Registered Yoga Teacher (RYT).

Do I need to have an established yoga practice?

There are no prerequisites or requirements to be a part of this training other than a desire to study yoga. It is recommended that you cultivate a personal practice prior to the training as a means of preparation to support your upcoming journey.

I have physical limitations, can I participate?

Yes. We all have limitations in different ways. Yoga is accessible through modifications and care for almost all limitations. If you are experiencing something specific and would like to communicate before registering, please email Bridget@iLaYoga.com.

Are there days off during the teacher training?

As this program is an immersion, the days are concentrated with training sessions as well as space and time throughout each day to rest and integrate. However, there will be several days with only one session giving you the rest of the day to explore or relax as you wish.

Do you offer payment plans?

Yes. In order to register, a $1,000 deposit is due. 50% of the remaining balance must be paid two months prior to the training with the remainder due two weeks prior.

I do not want to teach yoga, is this program suitable for me?

Absolutely. We honor your reasons for embarking on this journey, and if self-study and deepening your practice is the why, or supplementing your current life/work with a yogic approach is the why, or simply wanting dedicated time in the jungle to study yoga is the why... it is all enough.

Can I teach immediately after this course?

Yes. These 200-hours have been designed to provide you with the resources intended to be a strong foundation for teaching. Many will teach right away, others will take more time with the teachings, and some may not teach at all. Whatever your path, you will have the tools and the power to choose.
